Dear Rafael Jorge:

We are writing because of a question about the authorship statement on the application. Your application names you as the sole author of the entire work. The credits on the copy, however, indicate that many other individuals also contributed to the production of this motion picture, including Luis Corporan and Youssel Abreu, credited as the director and producer.

Usually several people are involved in making a motion picture on videotape or film. These may include the producer, director, writer, camera operator, editor, and others. These individuals may be the authors of the work. Often, however, they are employed by a company or another individual to make the motion picture, and the resulting work is a "work made for hire." In this case, the employer is the legal author. (See Circular 9 at <http://www.copyright.gov/circs/circ09.pdf> for more information about "works made for hire.")

Please reply and give us complete and accurate authorship information. If the entire work was "made for hire," tell us the employer's name(s) (possibly Jorge Movie Productions and/or Renacer Films). Do not give the names of the employees. We will amend the record naming the employer(s) as the sole author and claimant of the "entire motion picture" in a "work made for hire." (See No. 1 on the attached Motion Picture Authorship Leaflet.)

Or, if no part of the work was "made for hire," name the individuals who made the motion picture and briefly describe what each person did, for example, "producer," "director," "script writer," "camera operator," and so forth. (See No. 2 on the Authorship Leaflet.) We will amend the registration record accordingly.

Possibly part of the work was "made for hire" and part was not. If so, give us the appropriate information and we will amend the record accordingly. (See No. 3 on the Authorship Leaflet.)

Finally give the name and address of the copyright claimant. The claimant is the person(s) or organization that owns all rights in the motion picture. If any claimant is not an author, also tell us the legal means by which copyright was transferred (for example, "by written agreement").

Sincerely,
Gareth James
Registration Specialist, U.S. Copyright Office

Please note that if we do not receive a response to this message within 20 days, we will close this case without processing your registration or notifying you further, and forward your deposit copy(ies) under the provisions of the current copyright law. The fee is not refundable. If you re-apply for registration after the case is closed, you must send a new application, copy and fee. The effective date of registration will be based on the new submission.

Hello,

The owner, executive producer and the writer of the screenplay En Medio del Dolor is me Rafael Jorge. I contracted Luis Corporan to be the director and Youssel Abreu to be the producer. The owner of Renacer Films is called Dorian Melo Felix, he is the editor of the movie, his company was in the credits, only in the credits he does not own the movie I just contracted him to edit. If there is an issue I can take out the credits. The name and address of the copyright claimant is: Rafael Jorge: 1145 Liberty St. Springfield MA, 01104. 413-657-6939.

Thank you.

God bless you.

Rafael Jorge.

Hi, thanks for your reply. Based on your email I will amend the record to indicate that the motion picture production was "made for hire." The registration will give your name twice in the author section, once as author of the screenplay (not for-hire), and again as the author of the motion picture as the employer in a "work made for hire."

Please let me know if I have your permission to make the suggested changes and I'll amend the record and finalize the registration.

Best regards,

Gareth James

From: A&AE AcquisitionsTo: rafaeljorge584@comcast.net*Sent: Wednesday, April 27, 2016 5:52:57 PM*Subject: Acquisitions and distribution for your film

Dear Rafael,

The reason I am contacting you today is because our records indicate that your film may be a perfect candidate for worldwide distribution with A&AE. We are currently acquiring for our 2016 catalog, and we are interested in representing your film for global sale at markets such as Cannes, TIFF and AFM.

Please contact us today by calling +1.310.684.3545 and/or by submitting your screener for immediate review to the A&AE acquisitions team by following the steps below:*

Submission guidelines:

- 1) Download, initial and sign the standard A&AE release form, making sure that each owner of the film completes a separate form of their own.
- 2) Scan the completed form(s) and e-mail it back to this address.
- 3) Mail the hard copy form(s) to: Adler & Associates Entertainment, 8721 Santa Monica Boulevard #312, West Hollywood, CA 90069, United States of America.
- 4) Send a private online link and/or two (2) DVD screeners to the address above.

Please note: Our international sales, distribution and acquisitions teams are currently finalizing our spring 2016 catalog and preparing for a busy film market schedule that takes us to such major markets and festivals as Cannes, TIFF and AFM. Due to heavy call volume and market activity, please allow three to four business days turnaround time. Minimum guarantees are subject to change and are based on above-the-line talent and market conditions. For more information please visit our website.

Sincerely,
Marie Adler

Hi there,

Upon further investigation of your DMCA notice, we have decided to set it aside on the ground that it appears to contain invalid information.

Among other things:

- The email address you provided appears to be a temporary one
- If you can supply evidence of your identity and ownership of the copyrighted works in question (e.g., a Copyright Office filing), we will re-review your request.

Sincerely,

Rohit

Response to your Vimeo DMCA claim

To rafaeljorge584@comcast.net

Vimeo

Dear Rafael Jorge:

We are writing in response to the Digital Millennium Copyright Act ("DMCA") takedown notice that you provided to us (the "Notice").

Please note that, as of the date hereof, Vimeo, Inc. has:

- Removed or disabled access to the material on Vimeo that you identified in the Notice;
- Where such material formerly appeared on Vimeo, posted a statement that Vimeo has removed such material as a result of a third-party notification claiming that such material is infringing; and
- Notified the persons that posted the material in question that Vimeo has removed or disabled access to such material as a result of a third-party notification claiming that such material is infringing.

This letter, and the actions taken as described herein, do not and shall not constitute or be construed as an admission of liability or wrongdoing whatsoever on our part, including any infringement (direct, contributory or vicarious) by us of any intellectual property or other rights, and do not constitute and shall not be deemed to constitute any waiver, release or impairment of any kind of any of our rights available to us at law or in equity, all of which are hereby expressly reserved.

Furthermore, this letter, and the actions taken as described herein do not constitute, and shall not be construed as, an agreement or course of dealing by us to in the future take any action or refrain from taking any action.

We trust that this concludes this matter.

Very truly yours,
Vimeo, Inc.

Hi,

Under the Digital Millennium Copyright Act ("DMCA"), Vimeo is required to restore material that has been subject to a Takedown Notice if the uploader sends us a formal Counter-Notification and the original claimant fails to initiate litigation against the user.

As we have received a Counter-Notification regarding the Material, in accordance with the DMCA, Vimeo will restore the Material ten (10) business days from the processing of the Counter-Notification unless Vimeo receives notice that an action seeking a court order to restrain this user from the alleged infringing activity has been filed.

You may include such notice as an attachment to your reply.

Sincerely,
Shueb

Subject: "En Medio del Dolar" / Your file flagged as undeliverable

Dear Rafael,

I hope this e-mail finds you well. I'm contacting you today because our records indicate that your film is still undeliverable. Due to market conditions, and the change in regulations by the networks, it is counterproductive and makes no sense for us to push for a sale on a film that we cannot deliver. Also please take note that non-notarized contracts are binding, but that notarized versions are needed for the final sale of your film.

Help us help you at A&AE by quickly resolving any issue with delivery and/or the outstanding items listed below. Without these items we are not able to promote and push for a close on an undeliverable film. Please note, as stated from the beginning, also make sure we also have two (2) burned DVDs of the film and your original hard copy submission release form (must be signed and dated).

Please e-mail back with the status of these items and feel free to call us with any questions.

1.) Hard-drive

- a) Video/sound mix project files and raw audio/video material
- b) Video master of the complete film
- c) All textless video elements/materials
- d) (M&E) Music & Effects track
- e) Isolated audio stems (music, foley and dialogue/production sound)
- f) Music cue sheet
- g) Time-coded transcript of all dialogue in film
- h) Complete transcription of open and closing credits
- i) Stills for Promotional use and press kit
- j) Poster & Trailer

2.) Basic chain of title elements

- a) Notarized Contact
- b) Submission release hard copy (must be signed and dated)
- c) Music right releases/documentation
- d) Copyright registration certificate for the film (or proof of registration/deposit if certificate is not yet available)
- e) Certificate of origin
- f) Proof of script ownership, via the following:
 - I. Copyright registration certificate (or proof of registration/deposit if certificate is not yet available)
 - II. Option agreement (if applicable)
 - III. Screenplay acquisition agreement (if applicable)

3.) A passing quality control (QC) report for video master and main sound mix/M&E tracks

- Please contact us for a list of approved facilities for quality control (QC) reports
